Agnes C. Fleck

Agnes C. Fleck, age 91, of Findlay, passed away January 29, in the St. Francis Home in Tiffin.

Mrs. Fleck was a homemaker all her life. Mrs. Fleck was a member of St. Michael's Catholic Church Altar and Rosary Societies, the Ladies Catholic Benevolent Association, the Catholic Ladies of Columbus Council No. 6, the Leo Councilettes, and the San Soucci Bridge Club.

She was the widow of Arthur A. Fleck who preceded her in death in 1981. She is survived by sons, James of Nobleville, IN, Louis of Sweetser, IN, Bernard "Bump" and William, both of Findlay, and Michael of Bainbridge Island, WA; daughters, Mrs. Roger (Cecilia A.) McKinley and Mrs. Raymond (Agnes) Currie, Mrs. Jerry (Phyllis) McAdoo, and Mrs. George (Mary Theresa) Stoll all of Findlay; sister, Mrs. Phyllis Reese of Fremont, OH. Also surviving are 41 grandchildren and 55 great-grandchildren.

Friends may call at the Coldren-Crates Funeral Home 205 W. Sandusky St., Findlay, on Monday, January 31, after 2 p.m. where the Rosary will be recited at 8:30 p.m. Funeral Services will be held Tuesday, February 1 at 10:30 a.m. Burial will be at St. Michael's Cemetery. Memorial Tributes may be made to the St. Michael School Foundation or a charity of the donor's choice.